Ichiban!!

Ichiban's starting to like Ichiban... even though she thought he was really of her... Ichiban's just so happy to be with her... Ichiban's just so happy to be with her... Ichiban's just so happy to be with her...

Even though this is a fairly short second volume, I gained a lot of experience in this volume by experimenting with different techniques. I also had a lot of fun drawing the 'big-breasted' (sorry, I guess that's kind of 'happy-prate') character. In the beginning, I consciously focused on making something of a 'girl' manga, as I wrote the comic... But I didn't do that as much in this volume, since the heart of a girl is very difficult to comprehend or should I say... I'm just very immature. I'm going to retry this theme once I've grown up a bit more.

◀ Story Recap ▶

---

Unlabeled Hinata is in her second year of Jr. High. The school she transferred into, as the third semester of classes, turned out to be an all-boys school, and there are only two other girls in her class<sup>1</sup>.

In her class, there is the kind, Takamura-kun and the slightly scary but also somewhat cute Kephara-kun, so it's not as bad as it initially seemed. Out of the two girls in the classroom, there is also Motomi-san, who is slowly opening up to Hinata. At first Hinata thought that Kephara-kun was scary but now she likes him. But Kephara-kun likes the other girl in their class, Satou-chan, who was in the hospital until just recently<sup>2</sup>. Kephara-kun says that he just feels responsible, because he's the one who rejected her, but...

After being invited into the Botany Club by Motomi-san and Satou-chan, Hinata decides to join the club. The leader is Kephara-kun, and just before the Botany Club's camp-out, Takamura-kun joins the club. The club is well that trouble seems to be brewing...?

HIMAKO.

AT THAT

WHAT, SARADA-CHAN...

I KNOW.

The situation of the future,
not revealed.

THAT'S A GOOD IDEA.

Don't forget.

Oh, yes.
I FORGOT
SOME-
